

Girl Guides Australia (GGA) Publications – New stock arriving soon

Girl Guides Australia is pleased to advise that Guide retail outlets will be receiving new stock of the following resources between now prior to the end of November - Girl Guides Australia Handbooks (1-5), Look Wide, Aim High and Look Wider Still.

While Handbooks 1-3 remain unchanged reprinted editions, both Handbooks 4 and 5 have had a slight amendment included on page 55, for Handbook 4, and page 49, for Handbook 5. These updates have been applied to reflect the Sustainable Development Goals and remove reference to the Millennium Development Goals and the WAGGGS GAT badge, which are no longer current.

Look Wide and Aim High has been reprinted without any change.

Look Wider Still has been revised and now reflects changes for the various Trefoil Three challenges:

- Trefoil Three Outdoors now has the additional wording:

NOTE: You need to be 14 years or over before you can start several of the Outdoor challenges. It is your responsibility to contact your State Outdoors representative to confirm you fulfill the minimum age requirement.

- Trefoil Three Camping - Indoor camping now reads:

If you are 14 or over, you can start this challenge. Find a minimum of four and a maximum of seven other Guides aged between 14 and 17 years to take on your camp.

(Previously this indicated Guides 12 years or over)

- Trefoil Three Camping - Outdoor camping (Established Campsites) now reads:

If you are 14 or over, you can start this challenge. Find a minimum of four and a maximum of seven other Guides aged between 14 and 17 years to take on your camp.

(Previously this indicated Guides 12 years or over)

- Trefoil Three- Emergency - First Aid now reads:

Hold an appropriate qualification from a recognised first aid provider in your State

(Previously this indicated qualifications from St John Ambulance and Red Cross)

Further to the above-noted changes within GGA Publications, there are also some minor edits to the wording throughout, primarily to improve clarity and consistency.

States are encouraged to share this information with members and to ensure the correct editions are made available in Guide retail outlets and online.
